

CV Template

Name

Work Address:

Home Address:

---

Employment:

dates                      University, Dept., Position (most recent first)

Education:

degree                      University, Program/Department, Date
For Masters and PhD, list dissertation/thesis titles, possibly chair's name

Major Fields of Interest:

Publications:

Include books and articles in peer-reviewed and trade publications.

Other Published Materials:

Book reviews and ASA teaching guide materials

On-line material:

Under Review:

Good to include especially if publications section is weak, or if publications aren't recent.

Presentations:

date                      "Title," co-author(s). conference, city.

Teaching Experience:

Courses Taught:

If you haven't taught many, you may want to list courses you have t.a.'d for as well – however, make it clear which you've taught and which you've t.a.'d for (don't pad). Can also have a section "Courses Prepared" if you're applying for jobs needing certain courses taught. However, be sure they really are prepared, and you could produce a syllabus for the committee if asked.

Awards and Honors:

Fellowships/Grants:

Professional Activities and Affiliations:

Committee memberships, community work, panel organizing, reviewing, etc.

Member: list organizations